A WARNING TO THE PUBLIC.

The public is warned against the Hibernian Union Club, which is soliciting subscriptions for alleged charitable work, and which the Charity Organization Society has investigated. The solicitors gave the names of William Jackson, of No. 146 East Fifty-ninth-st., and F. Bergin, of No. 115 East Fifty-ninth-st., as officers of the club. No such persons are to be found in the directory or at the addresses given, and they are not known by any of the tradesmen, neighbors, priests or police of the neighborhood.

DISTRIBUTING THE SCRIPTURES.

In January the New-York Bible Society distributed 0,206 Bibles, Testaments, and parts of the Bible. Of this number, 1,342 were Bibles, valued at $429 25; 4,435 Testaments, $548 94; and 429 parts of the Bible, valued at $25 74—a total valuation of $1,003 93. Eighteen hundred Bibles and Testaments were given out among the immigrants at Castle Garden, and 2,465 Bibles and Testaments were distributed aboard ships and among seamen's churches.

THE REPORT ABOUT THE CITY OF ROME.

R. Henderson, agent of the Anchor Steamship Line, said yesterday: "We have just received a cable dispatch from Glasgow denying the reports recently circulated that the City of Rome will sail under the Guion flag in the Liverpool service. She will remain in our line and will sail from Liverpool for New-York on April 15. She will sail from New-York for Liverpool on April 19, and every fourth Saturday thereafter. I can't tell you what other steamships of our line will run alternately with the City of Rome as that question has not yet been settled."

PERLYING TO THE EXCISE COMMISSIONERS.

REPLYING TO THE EXCISE COMMISSIONERS.
By direction of the Police Commissioners Chief lerk Hawley yesterday sent the following note to

Clerk Hawley yesterday sent the following note to the Board of Excise:

It is respectfully submitted that the proper method of obtaining records of the conviction of any person in any court is from the duly authorized officer of such court, and this Department having no courtof over any such officer, and not being furnished by the courts with such reports, it is, therefore, impracticable for the request of the Board of Excise to be compiled with. I am directed by the Board of Police to assure the Excise Commissioners of their carnest desire to assist them in the legitimate discharge of their duties whenever they can consistently do so.

THE ARION BALL TICKETS.

The masquerade ball of the Arion Society will take place at Madison Square Garden on February 21. The tickets have just been printed. One side represents the entrance to a ball room guarded by two lauk halberdiers, with a crowd of masked clowns, harlequins and punchinellos in comic attitudes on the outside. A dude gallantly escorted by an ape with eye-glasses is in the act of entering over a sign as follows: "Abandon hope, all dudes who enter here." On the reverse is Prince Carnival with a masked Columbine in a wreath of flowers, while at the bottom is vignette with the laughing countenance of a jester, looking at the word "Welcome," and at the top is Arion on his dolphin.

A COMMUNISTIC OVERCOAT MISSING.
Robert Gramer is looking for an overcoat with $25 in it. He thinks that he ought to get it because it was the joint property of himself and a man named Hoffman. The two are immigrants who have been living together recently at No. 37 Rivington-place. Gramer had an overcoat and Hoffman had none, but the former was philanthropic and shared it with his companion. On alternate days one of the men would go out to look for work with the overcoat on, the other staying in the house. Their mission proved unsuccessful and finally Hoffman, on one of his days out, disappeared. The latter now thinks that communism in overcoats is not a good thing when it is one-sided.

THE LIEDERSEANZ TICKETS.

The tickets for the German Liederkranz ball, which takes place at the Academy of Music on February 18, have just been issued. They are not so large and elaborate as in former years, but they make up in taste and elegance the lack of size and elaborateness. The engraving was done by the Homer Lee Bank Note Comgany. At the left of the card stands a merry masker holding aloft a delicate beaker of wine. His elbow rests on a crescent moon in which are two feminine figures dancing with a jolly Cupid. At the top of the card the name of the society is printed on an engraved background that is supported by conventional delphins' heads. The rest of the ticket is adorned with handsome lettering and with finely engraved monograms of the society.

BROOKLYN.

BROOKLYN MUNICIPAL CHANGES.

Colonel John N. Partridge, the newly appointed Commissioner of Police and Excise in Brooklyn, had a half hour's private conference with General James Jourdan, the retiring Commissioner, at Police Headquarters yesterday. Colonel Partridge, at the close, left the building without waiting to be introduced to the Superintendent or other officials. The Common Council will act upon his bond to-morrow and on Thesday he will begin his new dutres. The change of heads will not affect the uniformed force, but some of the captains are fearing that transfers may exile them to distant precincts. The officers of the Fire Department called on Colonel Partridge yesterday, at his old headquarters in Jay-st., to take leave of him. Jeremiah P. Robinson has written to Commissioner Partridge, offering to go on his bond. The other bondsman is said to be R. H. Manning, of Clinton-ave.

Frederick L. Jenkins, for many years clerk to Police Superintendent Campbell, is announced as a candidate for the place of Fire Marshal, to succeed A. B. Thorn, a First Ward Republican. Mr. Jenkins is a Democrat.

Commissioner Fleeman, the successor of Ripley Ropes in the City Works Department, had a consultation with Mr. Ropes yesterday. Mr. Fleeman expresses himself as well pleased with the condition of the Department. He favors rapid transit, with compensation to property-owners.

Major R. H. Poillon, the new Fire Commissioner, says he will make no changes except on the resignation of subordinates. BROOKLYN MUNICIPAL CHANGES.

Frank J. Keller, the lawyer who raised the point before Judge Barrett in the case of John Keating, which resulted in the decision, said yesterday to a TRIBUNE reporter: "The District-Attorney, I am given to understand, has given up the idea of appealing the case, but has asked to have Judge Barrett furnish a written opinion, which will in all probability be filed on Monday morning. There will then be a general movement for the delivering of all convicts that the decision affects. Only the cases from the Special Sessions will be affected. The convictions in the General Sessions have all been in proper form, and of course do not come under the decision. Habeas corpus proceedings will be begun in all cases. In case the decision of Judge Barrett is reversed, the persons liberated might possibly be rearrested and made to serve out their time, though I am inclined to doubt it. At all events they would have to be liberated now. With the exception of Keating there have been no discharges as yet."

District-Attorney Olney said: "It is my intention now to appeal the case to the General Term, which sits either in March or May. Pending the appeal habeas corpus proceedings may be begun in each individual case, and the parties liberated. They could not be rearrested. There are not so many such cases as I at first supposed, but I am anxious to have the law in the premises definitely settled." tained, may result in a general jail delivery of such

THIEVES WORKING A NEW DODGE.

FLAT HOUSES ROBBED OF STAIR CARFETS—COMPLAINTS TO THE POLICE.

A new enterprise has been started by thieves in an East Side district of the city which abounds in second-class flat houses. It is not difficult for a thief to enter the halls of such houses in the night time, but to break into a set of occupied rooms from a hallway would be a more dangerous undertaking for a burglar than to enter a smaller dwelling. The halls of flat houses usually contain nothing of value except the carpets. Some elever rogues lately conceived the plan of carrying off stair carpets, which can be removed quickly and with little noise. They stripped the stairs of half a dozen houses in East Forty-ninth, Fifty-second, Fifty-sixth, Fifty-seventh and Eighty-seventh-sts., about a week ago. In the Arington Flat, No. 150 East Forty-ninth-st., they made their visit for plunder about 2 a.m., and were frightened away before they had completed their task, but they removed carpets worth $200. At No. 346 East Fifty-second-st., they let the stair carpet on the top floor, probably having been alarmed by some noise in the house. Early last week they went to the house No. 208 East Eighty-fifth-st., shortly before daylight, and took away all the stair carpets. Some of the inmates heard the thieves, but took no notice of them, thinking that they were authorized by the agent to remove the carpets. An occupant of the Idaho Fiat, No. 153 East Forty-eighth-st., returned home from a theatre about midnight on Thursday night, and walked up the stairs to his rooms. The carpets were gone. Inmates of the Iroquois Flat, No. 155 East Forty-eighth-st., returned home from a theatre about midnight on Thursday night, and walked up the stairs to his rooms. The carpets were gone. IN MEMORY OF DE LONG AND HIS MEN.

The arrangements for the reception of the bodies of the late Lieutenant Commander George W. De Long and his ten comrades, Surgeon James M. Ambler, Jerong J. Collins, H. H. Erickson, H. H. Koch, C. W. Boyd, W. Lee, N. Juerson, A. Drissler, Ah Sam and Alexy, the Indian, are nearly completed. The bodies are expected to reach Hamburg to-day or to-morrow, and will probably be forwarded on the steamship Frisia, which is expected to arrive here about February 20. They will be taken from the steamship Frisia, which is expected to arrive these about February 20. They will be taken from the steamer through the streets leading to the Brooklyn Bridge and thence to the Navy Yard, where all of them, excepting that of Jerome J. Collins, will lie in state in the Equipment building until the following day. The body of Mr. Collins will be taken in charge by the 69th Regiment, of which he was a member, and conveyed to the regimental armory, where it will lie in state for two days. It will then be taken to the Cathedral, where a requiem mass will be said, and it will be buried in Woodlawn Cemetery. The bodies of some of the dead men will be taken in charge by friends, but those of De Long and the rest will be buried in the Naval Cemetery at Annapolis. Invitations to attend the Inneral services were sent yesterday to President Arthur and the Cabinet, Judge Charles P. Daly, General Hancock and las staff, Mayors Edson and Low, and other local and National officials. Chief Engineer Melville, Lieutenant Lamenhower, Nores and Nindermann, De Long's classmates, Army and Navy ofheers on duty or detached service at this station, the 23d and 69th Regiments, and several civic societies have already been assigned positions in line.
